engagement and information flow with regulatory structure and high safety

"New Zealand's participation in such countries.

terms of the networking opportunities system proved very resilient. Peter says Peter explained there was a review of infrastructure.

quality services and products.

around how operational and technical the panel of experts speaking on 'The At the AEGPL congress, Peter was part of industry's state of play.

recently presented at the European LPG LPGA Executive Director Peter Gilbert safety framework.

New Zealand gas industry's regulatory and Gas industry stakeholders across the NZ gas industry regulation and safety superior energy efficiency.

they'll realise it's actually in that top 25% labels serve more as a comparison immediately recognise which models are efficient.

ENERGY STAR is awarded to qualified manufacturers to gain hard data around 80% of consumers, which is an impressive

EECA Efficient Products Manager, Eddie about the many advantages of making Gasline is published regularly as part of the Welcome to Gasline, which is produced by Gas...