May 2014

Welcome to Gasline, published monthly by the Gas New Zealand.

Gasline is published under the aegis of Enfield Publishing Ltd and is not intended to be used or quoted as a substitute for any advice, reports or other professional guidance or services which may be sought from a qualified person in any particular field.

Editorial

May 2014

Gas New Zealand

Gas is the best fuel for mobility of Van competitions in the New Zealand market which saw a tremendous amount of work. The competition was the key for the NZ award for the best three years with a total of 710,000 Van sales in the market, which is 57% of the market share.

The Van market in New Zealand has been dominated by the NZ award for the best three years with a total of 710,000 Van sales in the market, which is 57% of the market share.

Bloomberg reported that the global oil cartel has made it clear that they will not allow prices to rise too much. The Brent crude oil price has increased by about 15% since the start of the year, reaching $105 per barrel.

The BP oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico has been described as the biggest disaster in the history of the oil industry. The spill has caused significant environmental damage and economic losses.

The article discusses the challenges faced by the industry and the measures being taken to address them.

The industry is under pressure to reduce carbon emissions to meet global targets.

The article highlights the challenges faced by the industry and the measures being taken to address them.

The industry is under pressure to reduce carbon emissions to meet global targets.

The article discusses the challenges faced by the industry and the measures being taken to address them.

The industry is under pressure to reduce carbon emissions to meet global targets.

The article highlights the challenges faced by the industry and the measures being taken to address them.

The industry is under pressure to reduce carbon emissions to meet global targets.

The article discusses the challenges faced by the industry and the measures being taken to address them.

The industry is under pressure to reduce carbon emissions to meet global targets.

The article highlights the challenges faced by the industry and the measures being taken to address them.

The industry is under pressure to reduce carbon emissions to meet global targets.