

Gas Industry Average (excl. GMS)

The large number and duration of interruptions in 2020 were due to one event in Whanganui in February 2020 when a pressurized water main ruptured damaging a low pressure gas main and flooding approximately 9 kilometres of the low pressure gas network with water.

